

Expressions of Interest

MANX NATIONAL HERITAGE COUNTRYSIDE SITES INFORMATION PROVISION

The Isle of Man Government invites expressions of interest from suitably qualified and experienced Contractors for the provision of visitor information at 16 of its key countryside and monument site locations on the Isle of Man.

- Provide consistent and appropriate directional, orientation and interpretive information
- For visitors to readily find their way to the identified sites
- For the sites to be clearly identified as part of the MNH family
- For visitors to be able to readily access information about the nature and content of the site and its historic relevance and significance
- To raise awareness of conservation and care for the countryside and the heritage in the landscape to promote positive behaviour.

Background

Manx National Heritage (MNH) is the Island's statutory heritage agency. It manages a significant proportion of the island's physical heritage, including 2,500 acres of coastline and landscape.

As the National Heritage service of the Isle of Man, MNH has statutory responsibility for the Island's heritage assets and has the remit to provide a service, which is perceived as providing the following fundamental benefits for the Manx nation:

- community involvement in the local heritage to guarantee permanent retention of the Island's unique heritage assets, thus securing the future of the Manx identity;
- to increase the accessibility and enjoyment of the historic environment;
- to create a platform for national pride and understanding of the heritage assets and to promote all aspects of these assets across the educational community;
- to focus the marketing of the Island in a prestigious and attractive way by presenting our heritage as one of the concentrated and best cared for historic landscapes in Europe

In order to participate in this competitive exercise, your organisation must be registered on the Isle of Man Government's Procurement Portal.
