

Y Cysylltiad // The Connection

#AHIConf22

In an age of change, how can heritage interpretation adapt, embrace, and connect?

The Association for Heritage Interpretation annual conference
Dolgarrog, Snowdonia, North Wales, 12-14 October 2022

// Sponsorship opportunities

Would you be able to support some or all the costs for low or no income delegates to attend? Bursary sponsorship funds will be collated and distributed fairly between the applicants:

Contribute to delegates travel expenses and site visits	£75
Support a delegate for one day at the conference	£140
Support a delegate for the full conference	£240
Support a delegate for the full conference and their accommodation	£495

// Advertising opportunities

	AHI Member	Non-member
Delegate pack insert up to A5	£65	£85
Delegate pack insert up to A4	£95	£110
Conference stand (6 available)	£135	£155
Conference stand & half page Journal advert	£275	£345
Conference stand & full page Journal advert	£445	£495

Headline Sponsor

The over all headline sponsor has already been selected for this year's conference.

Advertiser information

The conference runs from lunchtime on Wednesday 12 October to lunchtime on Friday 14 October.

Set-up: 09:00 – 12:00 Wednesday 12 October (or evening of Tuesday 11 October by prior arrangement).

Removal: Stand cleared by 14:00 Friday 14 October.

Room info: Spaces will be roughly 1mx2m but more may be available on the day. A table, WiFi and electric socket are available. Please let us know if required.

The Exhibition Zone will be in a dedicated secure area so may be left for the duration of the conference though we do not accept liability for any theft, loss or damage to items in the space. The room will be available throughout the conference to delegates and we will encourage refreshments, activities and networking to take place here.

Address: Please send printed inserts for the delegate pack to: Astrid Krumins, Association for Heritage Interpretation, c/o Hilton Garden Inn Snowdonia, Conway Road, Dolgarrog, Conwy, Wales LL32 8QE

Copies needed: 120

To arrive by: Monday 10 October 2022

If you are interested in sponsorship or advertising please contact Lyn Redknap: admin@ahi.org.uk